

Auto-meters for the People

Simon Harding | Indian Express | 23 March 2010

Please find below the link of an article written by our colleague Simon Harding. Simon has been interning with AMAN on Informal Labour since last October. In collaboration with Arshad Hussain he has extensively researched on labouring conditions of auto rickshaw wallas and this article is written as a response to Delhi CM Shiela Dixit comments that auto rickshaws should be banned as they are a nuisance to Delhi public. An unedited version of the article is available Here .
